

Assistant Professor
Department of Sociology
Central Connecticut State University

The Department of Sociology at Central Connecticut State University seeks a sociologist with demonstrated teaching excellence and a commitment to scholarship for a one-year, Assistant Professor position, beginning in August 2023. The successful candidate will teach undergraduate courses in Sociology and the Women, Gender, Sexuality Studies (WGGS) interdisciplinary program, and contribute actively and effectively to student growth, service, and scholarship. Candidates are expected to be committed to multiculturalism and working with a diverse student body.

Required Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in Sociology is preferred at the time of appointment with a teaching and research focus in LGBTQ issues and Sexualities. Qualified ABD Ph.D. candidates will be considered.
- Demonstrated teaching excellence
- Demonstrated commitment to serving a culturally diverse student body
- Commitment to scholarship

Application and Appointment: For full consideration, applications must be sent to Search Chair, Dr. Heather Rodriguez (hrodriguez@ccsu.edu) and received by March 17, 2023.

Applications must include the following;

- Letter of interest addressing qualifications for the position
- Current curriculum vitae including the names, addresses, telephone numbers of three current professional references
- Evidence of teaching ability may include: sample syllabi and assignments, student evaluations, and a statement of teaching philosophy that specifically addresses teaching students with diverse needs and backgrounds;
- Writing sample and/or recent publications

The one-year academic appointment commences in August 2023 and ends in May 2024. Salary and rank are commensurate with education and experience

Members of all underrepresented groups, women, veterans, and persons with disabilities are invited and encouraged to apply.