Campus/College Information:	Founded in 1856, University of Maryland, College Park is the state's flagship institution. Our 1,250-acre College Park campus is just minutes away from Washington, D.C., and the nexus of the nation's legislative, executive, and judicial centers of power. This unique proximity to business and technology leaders, federal departments and agencies, and a myriad of research entities, embassies, think tanks, cultural centers, and non-profit organizations is simply unparalleled. Synergistic opportunities for our faculty and students abound and are virtually limitless in the nation's capital and surrounding areas. The University is committed to attracting and retaining outstanding and diverse faculty and staff that will enhance our stature of preeminence in our three missions of teaching, scholarship, and full engagement in our community, the state of Maryland, and in the world.
Background Checks	Offers of employment are contingent on completion of a background check. A prior criminal conviction or convictions will not automatically disqualify a finalist from employment in the position.
Vaccine Protocol	The University of Maryland has made the safety of our students, faculty and staff, and our surrounding communities a top priority. As part of that commitment, the University System of Maryland (USM) recently announced that students, faculty, and staff on USM campuses this fall, including UMD, are required to be vaccinated against COVID. As a prospective and/or a new employee at UMD, you will be required to comply with the University's vaccination protocol. Proof of full vaccination will be required before the start of employment in order to work at any University of Maryland location. Prospective or new employees may seek a medical or religious exemption to the vaccination requirement at return.umd.edu and must have an approved exemption prior to the start of their employment. Failure to provide proof of vaccination or to obtain approval for a medical or religious exemption will result in the offer of employment being rescinded.
Position Summary/Purpose of Position:	The Department of Sociology invites applications for a professional track faculty member at the level of Lecturer. This is a 9-month, full-time position. The successful candidate will assist with the instruction, development, and delivery of undergraduate courses in Sociology. Responsibilities include: 1) teaching three courses in each of the fall and spring semesters; 2) working with the Director of Undergraduate Studies to develop new curriculum of interest to Sociology majors and minors; and 3) participation on departmental committees, as assigned.
Minimum Qualifications:	A PhD in sociology or a closely related discipline. A strong commitment to teaching excellence is required.
Preferences:	Although we will consider candidates with a range of substantive specialties, we are especially interested in candidates who would be able to teach courses in the sociology of health, illness, and/or medicine.
Additional Certifications:
Additional Information:	Applicants should provide a CV, cover letter, statement of teaching philosophy, and a list of three references. The initial contract will begin August 2022 with an initial length of two years, with the possibility of renewal. Professional track faculty positions do not count toward or lead to tenured or tenure-track positions at University of Maryland, but do include a promotion ladder. Professional track instructional faculty play a crucial role in the academic life of the department.
